content of the Law. This week, Jesus gives us further instructions on how and when we should consider those differences and how we should respond in any given situation.

Jesus gave an example of Israel's beloved King David who went against God's Laws given to them in the Book of Deuteronomy. This was in response to those "religious leaders" who were continually trying to trap him into blaspheming against God.

Both examples, of David's response and of the response of Jesus, were for the purpose of seeing to it that those who were with them were properly fed. It was the right thing to do.
